

I like having the option of commercial free local content radio and do not believe there should be any limitation placed upon it just because it draws business from commercial stations. The open marketplace should be the decision maker.